

Streetsville Tigers 2004

Conduct

As representatives of the Streetsville Tigers organization, players and parents are expected to conduct themselves appropriately at all team events. A positive attitude and respectful manner is required.

Dress Code

Players must wear Streetsville Tiger track suits to all games and winter jackets if necessary. Streetsville Tigers warm up shirts are to be worn for pre game warm up.

Attendance

Players are required to attend all games, practices and team events. Absences for illness, school and family matters are acceptable reasons. All other reasons will be discussed individually and will result in lost playing time.

Dressing Room

Devices which photograph or video are not permitted in dressing rooms. Horseplay, bullying and inappropriate behaviour or language, will not be tolerated and result in lost playing time.

On Ice

Players are expected to show up prepared to work hard and pay attention. Respect for coaching staff, on ice help and other players is mandatory. Horseplay, bullying or inappropriate behaviour or language, will not be tolerated and will result in lost playing time.

Games and Practices

Players must arrive 1 hour prior to game time, be ready for warm up 45 minutes before game time and be dressed and ready to play 10 minutes before game time. Players should arrive 30 minutes before practice start and be on ice for the start of practice.
